English Wine Week 2018: a timely excuse to raise a glass to the UK's growing viticulture industry

Art and sculpture at High Clandon Vineyard

Cuvée.

A world away from the big producers, but within sight of the capital, High Clandon is exquisite

From May 27 until June 10, over 150 works of art will be on show at the High Clandon Estate Vineyard in the Surrey Hills, in support of the Cherry Trees charity (which provides respite care for disabled children). This year, the exhibition will also mark the launch of High Clandon's Elysium
